

Montreal Regional Association

Rules, Procedures and Exceptions Host Clubs

Excerpt from the competition rules, Interclub 4, 5 and 6

4-Standings: The Club finishing in second position remains in its section and is placed in the first row and thus receives the following year. The receiving club can only be host for a maximum of two consecutive years.

5- Obligation of the Host Club: The only obligations of the Host Club are, to allow the players of each team, to play for free during the day of the competition and to enjoy a round of practice also free of charge.

6- Responsibilities of the Host Club: The Host Club is responsible for enforcing the rules of the competition and the preparation of the course.

* Invitation letter

The invitation to send for Interclub A, B and Senior meetings must include at least the following information.

- 1) The schedule and course of the competition day (Captains 'meeting first tee time etc ...)
- 2) Charges and reservations: for the services available, such as for brunch or dinner or cocktail party etc ... Including the cost for players and caddies.
- 3) Practice rounds: The dates available to the opposing teams for the practice round, the starting blocks that will be used, as well as the coordinates of the manager to contact for reservations.
- 4) Electric cart: The availability of electric carts, how many are accepted by foursome. And should we book in advance? If so, to whom?
- 5) The invitation sent to the Captains of the guest clubs must be done at least 4 weeks before the date of the competition.

*Procedures in case of a date conflict;

Schedule conflict: sometimes a conflict of date for the competition occurs ... the Host Club is allowed to change this date within a one week of the interval (before or after the scheduled date according to the category)

1) You must call the Captains of the other three Clubs informing them of the new possible date for you to receive.

2) If all agree: you inform the Association as soon as possible and the changes will be made on the website.

3) If only one club can not accept the change of date for any reason:

You must ask the Club in second position of your group, if it can receive for you, if there is refusal, you ask the third, refusal again, you finally ask the fourth.

If unfortunately, no Club can receive for you, you are disqualified.
(And you inform the Association as soon as possible, of the conclusion of your request)

*Cases of refusal to receive, withdrawal or impossibility to receive (which is not a reason of a major issue);

In such case there will be immediate disqualification of the Host Club.

Consequence of a disqualification of a Host Club;

The Host Club will be withdrawn for the current year, in addition to being relegated to the last group of its class (if available) and a one-year suspension is added to the demotion.

This Club must meet the association before any reintegration.